PRESS RELEASE

May 2, 2011

The over 40,000 members of the 40 plus states that represent the members of the National Troopers Coalition would like to congratulate our brothers from the Federal Law Enforcement community, the Intelligence arena and the United States Military operatives responsible for the death of Osama Bin Laden. Although bringing him to justice via death may seem too easy, it is a much better verdict than would have been gained had he been captured alive. Let us remember those members who carried out this mission. The dangerous and life threatening operation that resulted in Bin Laden's death is to be admired and our hearts and smiles go out to these brave men and women.

For this Government and the men and women who work everyday in the Federal arena and the Armed Forces to make this their priority for the last ten years speaks volumes to the determination of these groups.

In the ten years since 9/11 of 2001, none of us have forgotten the horror of watching our brothers in law enforcement, our firefighters and so many members of the public perish in that horrendous attack. We also feel and hope comfort arrives for those families who have suffered since their loss. Pity those fools who thought it could also defeat our spirit.

Let us not allow our vigilance to lessen, as possible repercussions may emerge. Watch for any terrorist reactions. Any who feel that this death should be avenged, shall hopefully suffer the same demise.
